

ATTACHMENT I – Abstract

Road barrier comprising a plurality of modules consisting at least of an upright, or vertical component, fixed in the ground, and a first longitudinal element, or horizontal component, made with tubular profiles. The upright is arranged through inside the first longitudinal element, so that the latter can be moved vertically and selectively clamped at a desired height.